Candidate Services

eurpeople supports its candidates via a dedicated team of staffing specialists focused on key SAP technologies. Our services combine a global reach with strong local knowledge.

Contract Staffing

eurpeople's clients include many of the world's leading organisations across multiple industries enabling us to offer a wide range of challenging freelance SAP assignments worldwide. By getting to know each candidate individually it enables us to perfectly match the requirements of a client to the best-suited candidate.

Permanent Staffing

eurpeople recognises the significance of your next career move. Selecting a new job is one of the most important changes in a person's life and can also be needlessly stressful.

eurpeople offers a personal service, using dedicated consultants that invest time to understand your employment requirements. By building up a detailed understanding of your needs, aspirations and career requirements, combined with a thorough understanding of your industry we will provide you with genuine permanent SAP employment opportunities to match your career goals.
